Larson seeks supervisor post

by LEE ANN MACKULIN

Current deputy supervisor of assessments, Kenneth Larson, of Antioch, is looking to become the next Lake County supervisor of assessments. Larson is seeking the title against Patrick Morris of Waukegan.

"I've worked here for 16 years and am the assistant supervisor. I've worked my way up...it's the natural way to go," said Larson.

Both Larson and Morris passed a two-hour qualifying test administered by representatives of the Illinois Department of Revenue. Larson scored 96 with Morris scoring 99.

He has worked under outgoing supervisor Robert Jasper of Winthrop Harbor who is retiring from his post May 31 after 24 years.

Larson is a member of the Antioch Rescue Squad.

RV, Boat and Auto show to display finest

Antioch may anticipate many future RV Boat and Auto shows such as the one May 23-25 being sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

"We hope to do this more than just this year. We hope to have a 30th annual show," said chairman of the show, Ray Scarpelli of Raymond Chevrolet at a meeting May 2.

The show, to be held in the municipal parking lot, will run noon to 9 p.m. May 23; 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. May 24; and 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. May 25.

A meeting was held, involving all participating dealers and many others interested in a successful show.

Entertainment, to feature Ernie Levas, was decided upon, along with the 'local talent' being gathered for a talent show to keep the crowds smiling.

"It's the biggest thing that's happened in this area in a long time," said Vince Giorgi, the chamber's No. 1 public relations man.

Giorgi has designed T-shirts, banners, buttons and even a stage for the talent show, in honor of this first annual event.

The three days will involve many area dealers displaying their finest including: Raymond Chevrolet-Oldsmobile, Lyons and Ryan Ford, Pittman Pontiac, Pedersen GMC, Hucker and Sons Chrysler, Hidden Cove, Sequoit Harbor, Fox Lake Harbor, and the Fun-in-Sun Marine All Season's RV and Countryside RV.

A concession stand will be available, selling hotdogs, chips and soft drinks to all of the hungry show-goers.

The co-chairman of the show is Retail Chairman Larry Hanson.

For more information call the chamber office at 395-2233.

HISTORIC EVENT—The old school house, being renovated by the Lakes Region Historic Society is a landmark in Antioch and well-deserving of the attention it's been receiving lately. Various fund-raisers such as the society's antique show held recently at the V.F.W. auction center help in covering costs of renovation.—Photo by Lee Ann Mackulin.

Former fire chief, trustee, dies

by LEE ANN MACKULIN

"To me he was a very exciting man...he was a gung ho fireman from the word go," said Mayor Raymond Toft in speaking of Edgar Simonsen. Simonsen died April 27 at Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan.

Simonsen lived all of his 74 years in Antioch and was "a very active individual," said Toft. He served on the Antioch Volunteer Fire Dept. for over 50 years, and was chief from 1950 to 1966. He had been named honorary fire chief upon his retirement. For his dedication to the fire dept., the new Antioch Firehouse was dedicated in his honor in 1979.

"He was one of those people that was willing to share his knowledge in any way he could," said Superintendent of Public Works Todd Mapleshorpe. "During his time we came into some advancements that he helped to push along," he said.

A vehicle which helped stop brush fires and the Antioch Fire Dept.'s first tanker, which came in 1937, were two of Simonsen's accomplishments.

He was also very active on the village board, serving several terms in the 1940's and 1950's and from 1977 to 1983.

Before becoming the village superintendent of public works, Simonsen worked as a mechanic at the Antioch Chevrolet Garage.

"If he couldn't fix it, he could make parts to make it work," said Toft.

Even after his retirement, he did lawn mower repair and all types of maintenance, said Toft.

He also served in the U.S. Army during WW II and belonged to the V.F.W. Post 4551 of Antioch.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Lucille Hanke Simonsen in 1976. He remarried to Lillian (Ziembo) Martin in 1977, in Antioch. They lived on Victory Street in a house that "he bought for some $2,300 fifty years ago," said Toft.

"He was very energetic, always doing something...always working," he said.

"We're going to miss having him come in and gabbing with us," said Mapleshorpe.

Friends desiring may make contributions to the Antioch Fire Dept. or the Antioch Rescue Squad in his memory.

Good news in The News

Golf league to meet

The State Bank of Antioch's Women's Golf League is holding a registration meeting 11 a.m., May 7 at the Spring Valley Golf Course.

A buffet will be offered (with a $5 charge) with the meeting to follow.

The League is open to any area women interested in a fun summer of golf. The first game will be May 21 with one to follow each Tuesday at 8 p.m.

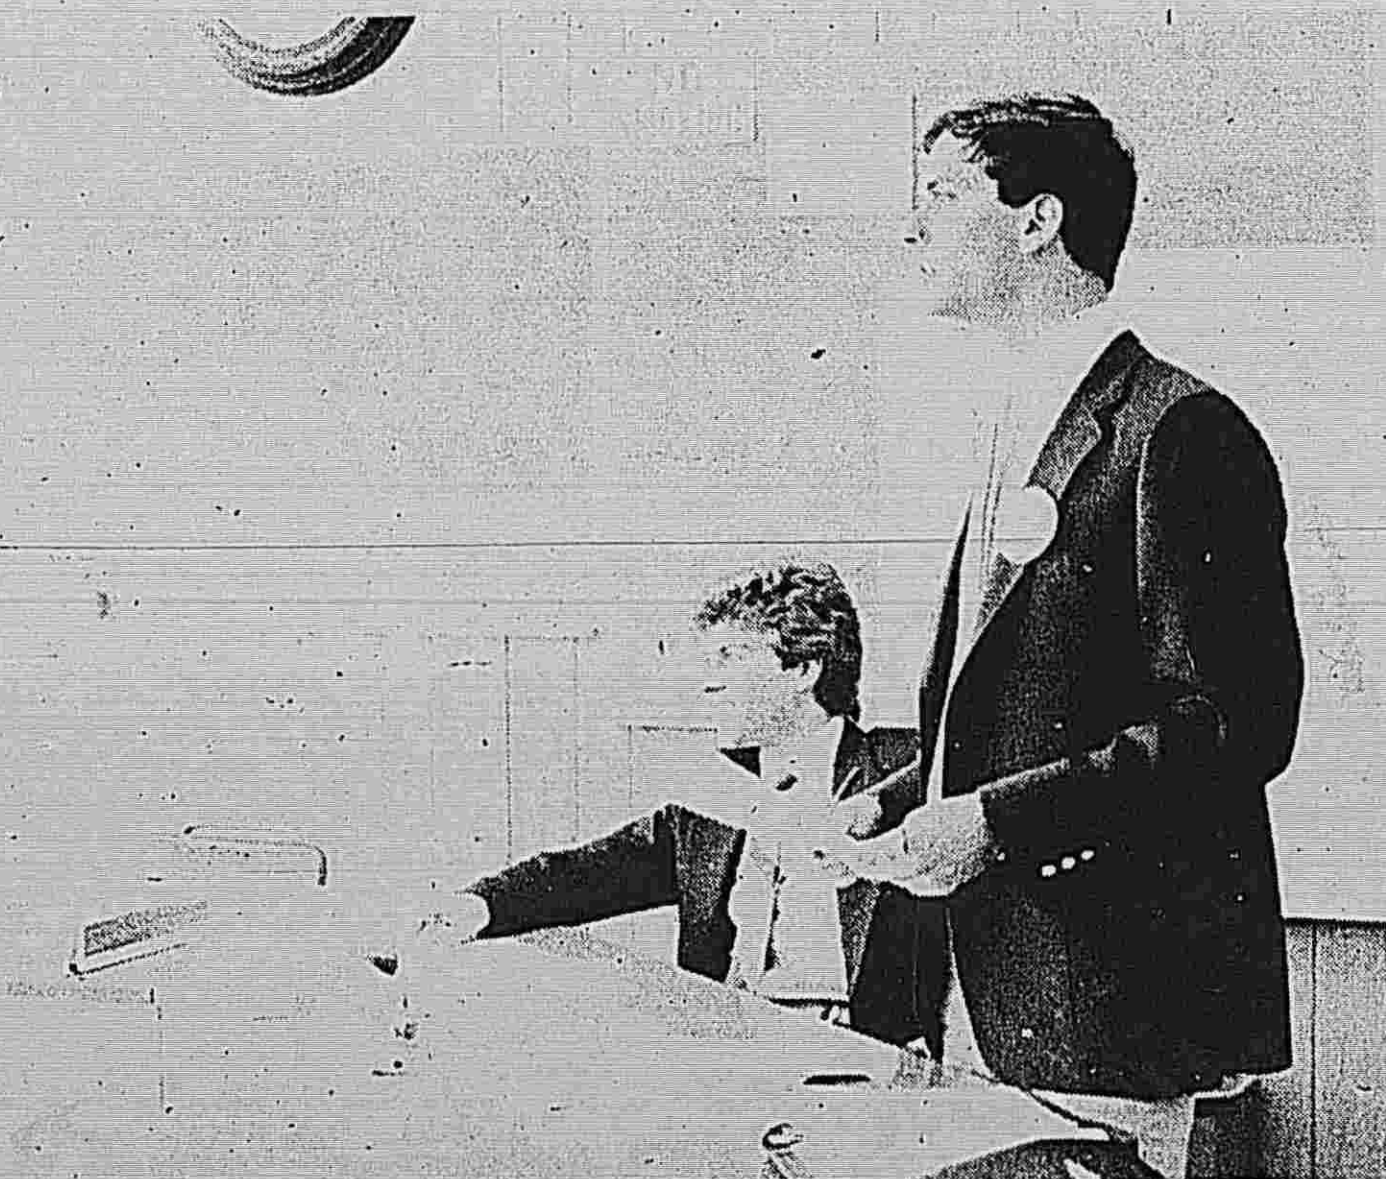

Fries thanks friends

Joel Fries wants to thank all of his friends in BSA Troop 80 who have helped him. Fries was a victim of a propane gas explosion a few months ago.

"All of you have shown me what true friends really are. The support you gave me helped both physically and mentally at a very desperately painful time in my life," said Fries.

He also thanks everyone in the community who donated to the 'Joel Fries Emergency Fund'. "I can't thank you enough for all of your support in my time of need. You've shown me that people still care and have compassion for one another."

The remaining funds will be donated to a burn unit...a lifesaving cause.

SHOW TIME—Antioch Chamber of Commerce Retail Chairman Larry Hanson, left and Ray Scarpelli Jr. of Raymond Chevrolet plan the First Annual Antioch RV, Boat and Auto Show at a meeting May 2 at the village hall. The show, May 23-25 involves many area dealers, most of whom came to the meeting. Scarpelli and Hanson are chairman and co-chairman of the show respectively.—Photo by Lee Ann Mackulin.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Everyone had a great time at the Jaycee Installation Dinner at the Tower Room Saturday. The food was great and the dancing was fun. President Matt Branyik did a great job with the program.

Don't forget to stop at the First National Bank for their Open House May 7. It's from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. with lots of food and fun. You'll enjoy it.

As every mom knows...summer is here! The first baseball game is May eighth at the Little League Diamond. It's time for all of those practices and games and the fast foods, hot dogs and late meals. To think we can't wait nine months to live like that!

Speaking of Mom's! Next Sunday is Mother's Day. Pad the allowance and send the kids down to do their shopping. There are some really lovely things in town to choose from. Put a bug in your store clerks ear and the kids will bring you a big surprise?! Many of the area restaurants are having a Mom's Day Brunch so you can be treated like a queen.

Wasn't the Good News Bear Game fun Friday night! It is always great to see celebrities but the best part is seeing our 'area celebrities' in action. And what action! Especially by the cheer leaders.

I stopped at Johnson Jewelers the other day and found Laddie Korecek in his rompin' casuals. He is a physical laborer these days, working on the remodeling-expanding job in the store. You will find Dennis Johnson in his suit though so the entire image is not ruined. (neither are the jewels...lovely!!) Another good place to send the kids for Mother's Day Gifts!

The Chamber of Commerce is at it again...the meetings are in progress for the First Annual Outdoor Show-RV Boat and Auto Show to be exact. It will be held May 23-25 in the plaza by the water tower. It certainly looks festive and for more information call the chamber office at 395-2233 or catch the busy chairman of the project Ray Scarpelli, Jr. or co-chairman Larry Hanson. How does that guy keep up? Busy, busy, busy. I know everyone is looking forward to it.

The village has again lost a dear friend. It truly has been a sad week for Antioch. Our condolences go out to the Edgar Simonsen family and friends. Todd, Mapelthorpe certainly expressed it best in his Eulogy-"I can only say in closing, Edgar is going to be missed and the village is a better place because he was here."

And on the lighter side-Happy Birthday May 10 to Pat Lorenz and Susan Haley, and Happy Anniversary to Chuck and Helen Burrell on May 4...sorry I missed ya last week!

And in closing..."Play Ball!"

Parksfun to begin

A 'Rules of the Roads' class, sponsored by Antioch Parks and Recreation in cooperation with the Secretary of States Office is set for 10:30 a.m., May 13 and May 20 at the Antioch Senior Center.

Both classes are required to complete the course. For more information call 395-2160.

Antioch Parks is getting ready for its Rain or Shine Summer Day Camp to begin June 10. Camp is from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Friday for threeto12 year olds.

Fees are $45 per week if one is a member of the pool, $55 per week for non-members and a $2 hourly rate. There is a twenty percent discount on each additional child. For more information call 395-2160.

Anyone who has not received a summer brochure from Antioch Parks and Recreation in the mail may obtain one from the village hall or the Antioch Township Office.

An antique quilt was won by Dorothy Wertz. Antoinette Fields was the winner of the hand-crocheted table cloth. The antique decoy went to John Drosen and the Pickard vase to Osmond Insurance. All winners are from the area.

Local man charged

Steven P. Gundelach, of Antioch, was charged, on April 25, with three counts of delivering cocaine.

A circuit Court jury found Gundelach guilty of two counts and pleaded no contest to the third.
